Brigadier General H. R. Paige, U.S. Marine Corps
Director, Marine Corps Educational Center
Quantico, Virginia

Dear General Paige:

In answer to your invitation of 13 October 1955, I will be delighted to address the staff and students of your Junior School on the subject of "Evasion and Escape" on 2 May 1956 from 1030 to 1200 hours.

As suggested, I will limit my formal address to fifty minutes, followed by a ten-minute break, with a fifty-minute question and discussion period following.

The security classification of the lecture will be SECRET and no training aids are required. My background is as follows:

- a) Educated at Yale University
- b) Service in the Field Artillery, U.S. Army, World War I
- c) Service in the U.S. Air Force, World War II, last assignment being Chief, Evasion and Escape Branch, Headquarters USAF
- d) Present status: Retired, Air Force Reserve

Thank you for this opportunity to be of service, and I will await further instructions in April.

Sincerely,

Colonel, AF Res.

Dear [Redacted]

Information has been received from Mr. [Redacted] that you will be available to come to Quantico on 2 May, 1956, to address the staff and students of the Junior School, Marine Corps Schools, on the subject, "Escape and Evasion". I am delighted to hear that you will be able to fill this engagement, and we are looking forward to your lecture.

You are scheduled to speak from 1030 to 1220, and I suggest that your formal address be approximately fifty minutes in length, followed by a ten-minute break and a fifty-minute question and discussion period.

I will write in April to remind you of this engagement and to make detailed arrangements for your visit. We would appreciate your sending us the security classification of your lecture, any requirements for training aids, and a brief autobiographical sketch.

Sincerely,

H. R. PAIGE
